No. 340.

WEDNESDAY, October 30, 1751.

PARIS, Auguſt 10.

THE premier Preſident repaired the 3d of this Month, by Order of the King, to Compiegne, when his Majeſty ordered him to tell his Parliament, that he diſapproved of the Steps lately taken by that Body in reſpect to the Government of the Hoſpitals, and expreſly forbad them from interfering for the future, in any Thing more than examining into the Conduct of the Sub-directors; and ordered them to iſſue no more Arrets againſt the Regulations which the Archbiſhop of Paris ſhould think proper to make for the good Order of the Hoſpitals; and, as well in this Reſpect as in all others, the King deſires his Parliament to forbear making any more Remonſtrances, his Majeſty inſiſting upon being obeyed without Reply.

Hanover, Auguſt 10. All the Letters which have been received from the ſeveral Parts of this Electorate, are full of Accounts of the extraordinary Damages which the late Storms have cauſed, as well in the Cities as in the Country. The Hopes that had been conceived of a plentiful Harveſt, are vaniſhed, moſt of the Corn having been deſtroyed by the Hail, and the Waters that have fallen from the neighbouring Mountains.

Genoa, Auguſt 2. Fiorenzo is the Place pitched upon for the final Congreſs to decide the Corſican Broils, or to make them break out with inextinguiſhable Fury. We have the more Reaſon to hope for an Acquieſcence, as the Republic is ſo extremely indulgent in its Conceſſions.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 10. This Day two Men of War of ſixty and fifty Guns were launched in the King's Preſence, and ſeveral more new Ships will ſhortly be finiſhed, his Majeſty having reſolv'd to increaſe his Marine, ſeeing all the Powers of Europe are in the ſame Humour.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 10. They write from Copenhagen, that they have receiv'd Letters from the Daniſh Miſſionaries upon the Coaſt of Coromandel, dated in January laſt, which mention the Advantages gain'd by the French of Pondicherry, with this Circumſtance, that the Dutch Factors ſettled at Maſulipatnam, in order to prevent any Inconveniency in regard to their Commerce, had thought proper to withdraw themſelves, with their Effects, to Narzapour and Maduapalam.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 16. A new Negotiation is talk'd of for definitively regulating the Affairs of the Barrier to mutual Satisfaction: and, 'tis aſſured, that the King of Great Britain will ſend a Miniſter hither on that Occaſion.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated Auguſt 10.

"According to the Report made to the Court by M. Glandeves, who returned ſome Weeks ſince with two Men of War from the Coaſt of Guiney, the Son of one of the Kings of that Country, whoſe Diſtrict is call'd Santaini, came on board of M. Glandeves's Ship, dreſs'd entirely in the French Faſhion, with a laced Hat, Bag Wig, &c. and profeſſed a very great Affection for our Nation, which he ſaid he had had Time to acquire a thorough Knowlege of, by a few Years Reſidence in this Kingdom, and that he ſhould love and eſteem us as long as he lived; adding, that his Father's Affection for France was altogether as ſtrong as his, and that to manifeſt his Eſteem and Reſpect for our Monarch, he had lately aſſumed the Name of Lewis."

Hague, Auguſt 18. By the laſt Poſt from Liſbon we have received a very agreeable Piece of News, viz. That the King of Portugal has revoked the Edict of the Year 1739, whereby it was forbid to bring any Eaſt-Indian Commodities into his Dominions in foreign Veſſels. If this be true, our India Company will be great Gainers by it.

Paris, Auguſt 20. On Monday the Parliament, to the Number of thirty eight, went to the King relating to the Adminiſtration of the General Hoſpital, and the following is the King's Anſwer thereto:

"Submiſſion is the principal Duty of my Subjects, and it is my Parliament which ought to ſet the Example of this fundamental Law of my Kingdom.

When I permit them to make Remonſtrances relating to Edicts and Declarations which I ſend them to regiſter, I do not give them Power to diſannul or alter them.

I ſhall not refuſe to hearken to the Repreſentations which ſhall be made me, when they ſhall really have no other Object than the Good of my Subjects, public Order, and the Independence of my Crown.

I inſiſt, that my Declaration of the 24th of May laſt be regiſtered without any Alteration. I will ſend Orders to this Effect to my Parliament."

In the Evening of the ſame Day the King ſent Orders to his Advocates and Attorneys General, to proceed to the regiſtering the above Declaration.

The next Day the Parliament ſat all the Morning, and put it to the Vote, Whether they ſhould proceed to regiſter the Declaration; but there were only two for it, againſt 132. This Court afterwards named Commiſſaries to more ſtrictly examine into the Affair, and upon their Report, they will determine what Courſe to take.

Hague, Auguſt 2. The following is the Memorial by which the Earl of Holderneſs took his Leave of the States General:

High and Mighty Lords!

'THE King having thought proper to fix my Abode in 'England, by the Charge of Secretary of State, which 'his Majeſty has deign'd to confer on me, has expreſly order-'ed me, in preſenting my Letters of Recall, to renew, in his 'Name, the Aſſurances of his Affection and Friendſhip for 'your Republic, and his conſtant and invariable Reſolution to 'ſupport and promote, at all Times, your Intereſts, which 'his Majeſty regards as his own.

'Theſe Sentiments, High and Mighty Lords, have been 'already verified by an infinite Number of memorable Exam-'ples, and they cannot be too often repeated, or too ſtrongly 'expreſſed. The compleat Return on the Part of your High 'Mightineſſes, which I have ſo often experienced in the Courſe 'of my Miniſtry, aſſures the eternal Duration of an Union, 'which is the Baſis of the Equilibrium of Europe, and the 'Guardian of the Public Liberty: An Union formed on the 'ſame Principles, the ſame Views, the ſame Intereſts; ce-'mented by the cloſe Alliance of the great Prince who ſo glo-'rioufly fills the Poſt of his illuſtrious Anceſtors: An Union, 'which neither Force nor Artifice have been, or ever will be, 'able to impair.

'The Fidelity of his Majeſty in fulfilling religiouſly his En-'gagements with all Powers, and his Zeal for the Support of 'the Syſtem on which ſolely depends the Common Security, 'are ſo well known and approved, that the Repetition of the 'King's Sentiments, in this Reſpect, would be entirely ſuper-'fluous. The King's Thoughts are, and will ever be, the 'ſame. The Wiſdom of your Counſels, High and Mighty 'Lords, in concurring with his Majeſty in theſe ſalutary Views, 'ſecures the Continuation of the Repoſe and Tranquility ſo 'recently given to Europe.

'There remains nothing more for me, High and Mighty 'Lords, than to expreſs my moſt hearty Acknowlegements for 'all the Marks of Favour and Bounty with which it has pleaſed 'your High Mightineſſes to honour me; and of which I ſhall retain an eternal and sensible Remembrance. Nearer the Sacred Person of my Sovereign, I shall perhaps have more frequent Opportunity of manifesting my Zeal for the Service of the Republic. Happy, that in such a Situation I find the Duty of a faithful Subject of the King reunited with the natural Inclination, which ardiously leads me to embrace all your Interests. Accept, High and Mighty Lords, with your wonted Goodness, the Prayers which I shall never cease to make for the Prosperity of the Republic, and for the Perservation of the Illustrious Family which will secure its Grandeur, its Liberty and its Religion.

'retain

Done at the Hague the 30th of July, 1751. (Signed) HOLDERNESS.

"We have had credible Information from the Mohawks, that the French are now gone from Canada with an Army of 600 Men, 400 French, and 200 Indians (intending to augment their Army to 1000 as they go along) in the South Western Parts of Northern America, in order to strengthen their own Interest, and ruin ours in those Parts; particularly to destroy the Nation of Tooweehtoowees, tho' they are very friendly to the English; and to kill a certain Virginia Trader, who, by his honest Dealing with the Indians, has lately gained the Affections of many, and greatly drawn their Trade that Way; and that C. J. having had Intelligence of this by a Frenchman who deserted from the Army, and various other Ways, had sent a Belt of Wampum to all the Six Nations, to give them Notice of it, and to excite them to oppose the Designs of this Army."

PHILADELPHIA, October 17.

Last Week at a Court of Oyer and Terminer, held in Lancaster, two Men (Father and Son) both nam'd Sigismund Hainly, were tried for counterfeiting the Halfcrown and Ninepenny Bills of this Province, found guilty, and receiv'd Sentence of Death. The following is the Substance of the Confession of the Father, which he made to several Gentlemen in Jail, after he received Sentence of Death; viz.

"That when he was last in Germany, he applied to a Person in Hamblebaugh, in the Principality of Fulda, (whose Name he could not remember) to engrave Plates for printing the Halfcrown and Ninepenny Bills: That the Person applied to was a Printer, who accordingly printed and sign'd about Twenty Pounds of them; That when they were discovered to be bad, he put the rest into a hot Oven, and consumed them: That no Person was privy or concern'd with him: That after he received this Quantity of bad Money from the Printer, he saw him eraze the Engraving from the Plates, in order as he supposes, to use them for other Purposes. he solemnly declares his Son's Innocence, and says, That he paid him about Twenty Shillings in false Bills, but never told him they were Counterfeits.
